

Tufton Arms Hotel

Appleby in Westmorland

Conferences & Meetings

Ideally situated midway between the principal cities of Scotland and the North of England, the Tufton Arms offers a perfectly located conference & meetings venue.

Set in the medieval town of Appleby in Westmorland, in the heart of the beautiful Eden Valley, the Tufton Arms is a relaxing, charming location; yet one which is easily accessible to the major road, motorway and rail networks.

Formerly a 16th century coaching inn, this family owned and run Hotel creates an inviting, friendly atmosphere; a Hotel with individuality and character. Quality service, excellent hospitality and renowned cuisine from the Hotel's Conservatory Restaurant, combine to make the Tufton Arms a distinguished venue.

The Tufton Arms has three, well appointed meeting rooms, The Hothfield, Mews & Boardroom, accommodating groups from 5 to 100, suitable for conferences, business presentations, training seminars and corporate hospitality. A comprehensive range of activities and pursuits for incentive groups and corporate entertainment are also on hand within the Eden Valley and the nearby Lake District.
